

Section 5 4/ provides that before a sustained yield unit is established "each landowner whose land is proposed to be included" shall be given advance notice by registered or certified mail. Cooperative units are established under the provisions of section 2. As to the lands authorized for inclusion in such units, that section provides that cooperative sustained yield units shall consist of "federally owned or administered forest land under the jurisdiction of the Secretary establishing the unit and, in addition thereto, land which reasonably may be expected to be made the subject of one or more of the cooperative agreements with private landowners authorized by section 2 of this Act." (Emphasis supplied.)

As to the lands authorized for inclusion in a Federal unit, section 3 provides for the establishment of a sustained yield unit "consisting of forest lands under the jurisdiction of the Secretary establishing such unit." (Emphasis supplied.)

4/ "Before any sustained-yield unit authorized by section 1 or section 3 of this Act shall be established, and before any cooperative agreement authorized by section 2 or section 4 of this Act shall be entered into, advance notice thereof shall be given by registered mail or certified mail to each landowner whose land is proposed to be included and by publication in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the vicinity of the place where the timber is located, and the costs incident to such publication may be paid out of any funds available for the protection or management of the federally owned or administered forest land involved. This notice shall state: (1) the location of the proposed unit; (2) the name of each proposed cooperator; (3) the duration of the proposed cooperative agreement or agreements; (4) the location and estimated quantity of timber on the land of each proposed cooperator and on the Federal land involved; (5) the expected rate of cutting of such timber; and (6) the time and place of a public hearing to be held not less than thirty days after the first publication of said notice for the presentation of the advantages and disadvantages of the proposed action to the community or communities affected."
