

We have been working closely with the Forest Service on the facets of the log export issue involving our resource management responsibilities. We shall act together on those matters which involve the public forests.