

NEBRASKA

1967 NEW LAWS, REGULAR SESSION, PAGE 855, APPROVED JUNE 6, 1967

An Act relating to crimes and punishments; to make certain acts with a telephone unlawful as prescribed; and to provide penalties

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Nebraska:

SECTION 1. Any person who, with intent to terrify, intimidate, threaten, harass, annoy or offend, (1) telephones another anonymously, whether or not conversation ensues, and disturbs the peace, quiet and right of privacy of any person at the place where the calls are received, (2) telephones another and uses indecent, lewd, lascivious, or obscene language or suggests any indecent, lewd, or lascivious act, (3) telephones another and threatens to inflict injury to any person or the property of any person, (4) intentionally fails to disengage the connection, or (5) telephones another and attempts to extort money or other thing of value from any person, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The use of indecent, lewd or obscene language or the making of a threat or lewd suggestion shall be prima facie evidence of intent to terrify, intimidate, threaten, harass, annoy or offend.

The offense shall be deemed to have been committed either at the place where the call was made or where it was received.
