

PART I.—Data regarding foreign students studying in the United States at U.S. colleges, universities, and other institutions of higher education

A. Total number of students studying at U.S. institutions of higher education in the academic year 1966-67¹----- 100,262

B. Division by sex:¹

Number of men (77 percent)----- 76,873
Number of women (23 percent)----- 23,389
=====

C. Geographic area from which foreign students come:¹

Canada (and Bermuda)----- 12,230
Latin America----- 18,182

Western Hemisphere----- 30,412
=====

Africa----- 7,170
Far East----- 33,570
Europe----- 14,207
Near and Middle East----- 12,830
Oceania----- 1,635

Outside Western Hemisphere----- 69,412
Other----- 438
=====

Total----- 100,262
=====

D. Sources from which foreign students obtain major part of their financial support and the percentage of all students receiving major support from each source:¹

Self-supporting----- 40.3
Support from U.S. institution----- 17.7
Support from private organization----- 8.0
Support from U.S. Government----- 5.8
Support from foreign government----- 4.7
Mixed support----- 4.3
Not known----- 18.3

E. Percentages of students from different areas of the world who are self-supporting:¹

Canada (and Bermuda)----- 47.0
Latin America----- 44.0
Africa----- 17.0
Europe----- 35.0
Far East----- 28.0
Near and Middle East----- 45.0
Oceania----- 33.0

¹ Open Doors 1967: Report on International Exchange. New York: Institute of International Education, July 1967.

NOTE.—The source for this data (Open Doors 1967), published by the Institute of International Education defines a foreign student as any student with non-U.S. citizenship. Approximately 13,000 (13 percent) of those so classified indicated they did not intend to return to their home countries.

PART II.—Data on U.S. students and teachers traveling abroad in 1967

A. Total number of passports issued during 1967:¹

(1) To persons classifying themselves as students----- 292,070
(2) To persons classifying themselves as teachers----- 88,490

Total----- 380,580
=====

¹ Summary of Passport Statistics. U.S. Passport Office. Washington, D.C.: U.S. Department of State, January 1968.