

now operate in Europe where study will be conducted in secondary schools and universities here.

Thank you, sir.

Mr. HERLONG. Thank you, Colonel Kieffer. This is an excellent statement and we appreciate the problem that you have and you may be assured that the committee will give careful consideration to it.

Thank you, Mr. Young, for being with him.

Colonel KIEFFER. Thank you, sir.

Mr. HERLONG. We have one more witness scheduled, Mr. Curry, and Mr. Burke wanted to be here when you were testifying. We have a quorum call going on on the House floor now.

If you will come back at 2:30 this afternoon we would appreciate it, sir.

(Whereupon, at 12:56 p.m., the committee recessed to reconvene at 2 p.m., the same day.)

AFTER RECESS

(The committee reconvened at 2:30 p.m., Hon. James A. Burke, presiding.)

Mr. BURKE. We will reopen the hearings and our next witness is Joseph R. Curry, director of the Mount Hermon Summer Schools, Mount Hermon, Mass.

Will you identify yourself for the record, Mr. Curry.

STATEMENT OF JOSEPH R. CURRY, DIRECTOR MOUNT HERMON SUMMER SCHOOLS, MOUNT HERMON, MASS.

Mr. CURRY. I am Joseph R. Curry. I am director of the Mount Hermon Summer Schools of Mount Hermon, Mass.

Mr. BURKE. We welcome you here and I am particularly privileged to be chairing this meeting at this time coming from the great Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Of course your school has an excellent reputation in Massachusetts and I am pleased that you are here to advise and counsel us.

Mr. CURRY. Thank you, Mr. Burke. I am particularly indebted to you for your kindness and willingness to pay attention to my remarks.

For the convenience and information of the committee I have provided our current brochure. This brochure need not be a part of the permanent record of the committee.

Mr. BURKE. All right, sir. Incidentally, this is an excellent brochure. I have been reading it over and can see that you have an excellent educational program on foreign travel, on the history and culture of England, France, Spain, Greece, and Italy, and other countries, and also Japan on the other side.

I. INTRODUCTION

Mr. CURRY. Thank you. Yes. I am a graduate of the Citadel, the military college of South Carolina, and of Harvard University. I served for 2 years as an officer of artillery in the U.S. Army and for the last 7 years I have been a member of the faculty of Mount Hermon School. Mount Hermon School, for boys, is one of two institutions incorporated as the Northfield and Mount Hermon Schools. Together
