

identification, in writing to the contracting officer or his representative. The distinction between the "submission" of cost or pricing data and the "making available" of records should be clearly understood. The mere availability of books, records and other documents for verification purposes does not constitute submission of cost or pricing data.

3-807.4 Certificate of Current Cost or Pricing Data. When certification of cost or pricing data is required in accordance with 3-807.3, a certificate in the form set forth below shall be included in the contract file along with the memorandum of the negotiation. The contractor shall be required to submit only one certificate which shall be submitted as soon as practicable after agreement is reached on the contract price.

CERTIFICATE OF CURRENT COST OR PRICING DATA (OCT. 1964)

This is to certify that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, cost or pricing data as defined in ASPR 3-807.3(e) submitted, either actually or by specific identification in writing (see ASPR 3-807.3(f)), to the Contracting Officer or his representative in support of _____ * are accurate, complete, and current as of the data of execution of this certificate.

Firm _____
Name _____
Title _____

Date of Execution _____

* Describe the proposal, quotation, request for price adjustment or other submission involved, giving appropriate identifying number (e.g., RFP No. _____).

 As a general rule, this date should be the date when the price negotiations were concluded and the contract price was agreed to. The responsibility of the contractor is not limited by the personal knowledge of the contractor's negotiator if the contractor had reasonably available (see ASPR 3-807.5(a)) at the time of the agreement information showing that the negotiated price is not based on accurate, complete, and current data.
