

Additional material submitted for the record by—Continued
 Securities and Exchange Commission—Continued

After-tax earnings as a percentage of stockholders equity of the 25 largest banks, 1966-----	Page 683
After-tax earnings as a percentage of stockholders equity of the 25 largest stock life insurance companies, 1966-----	684
After-tax earnings as a percentage of stockholders equity of certain management companies, 1966-----	684
Broad Street Group: A case study of economies of scale in mutual fund management-----	686
Comparison of breakpoint in fees paid to advisers with breakpoints in fees paid to subadvisers of registered investment companies whose investment advisers have entered into subadvisory agreements with unaffiliated subadvisers (table)-----	138
Comparison of fees paid to adviser and subadviser of registered investment companies whose investment advisers have entered into subadvisory agreements with unaffiliated subadvisers (table)-----	137
Exhibit 3—Private Noninsured Pension Funds, 1966-----	159
Exhibit 3a—Stock Transactions of Financial Institutions, Second Quarter, 1967-----	165
Exhibit 3b—Stock Transactions of Financial Institutions, 1966-----	168
Exhibit 4—Correspondence to Chairman Staggers and Congressman Moss concerning speculative activity in the securities markets-----	176
Income expenses and profits before Federal income taxes of mutual fund advisory organizations for their fiscal year ended 1966-----	683
Letter dated October 24, 1967, with an editorial attached, entitled "Support the SEC Mutual Fund Recommendations" by John K. Kyle, editor, Blue Sky News-----	709
Letter dated November 6, 1967, with enclosures-----	760
Item 1—showing net assets, total expenses and advisory fees, and fee rates and expense ratios for all active mutual funds which had reported a full year's operations on June 30, 1967-----	760
Item 2—showing the basic management fee rate, and each level at which that rate is reduced, for mutual funds registered with the Commission-----	765
Item 3—Commission's June 30, 1967, index of active registered investment advisers, principal underwriters, sponsors and underlying companies (may be found in committee's files).-----
Item 4—showing the income, expenses, and profits of 13 publicly held advisory organizations-----	775
Item 5—showing the sales loads, and breakpoints for quantity purchases, of mutual fund shares-----	776
Item 6—showing sales and redemptions of mutual fund shares by size of fund for the 16 months ended September 30, 1967-----	778
Letter dated November 7, 1967, in response to questions submitted by Chairman Moss-----	723
Letter dated November 7, 1967, in response to questions submitted by Congressman Hastings Keith-----	748
Monthly investment plans—the costs and how they compare to contractual plans and voluntary plans-----	198
Mutual fund investment results compared to the results achieved from investments in the common stocks favored by small investors-----	204
Statements:-----
No. 1 (long)-----	26
No. 2 (short)-----	96
Supplementary-----	691
Stuckey, Hon. W. S., Jr.: Correspondence between Senator John Sparkman and various investment institutions-----	339
Waddell & Reed, letter from George D. Cleland, Jr., division manager-----	838
Wallich, Henry C., letter dated October 27, 1967, in response to questions submitted by Chairman Moss and information requested by Congressman Watkins re 5-percent sales charge-----	603
Watkins, Arthur M., Piermont, N. Y., letter-----	841