

This is a new bridge, recently installed. This is standard practice in New York State. They have these curbs on every bridge and still have not changed.

Here you see them in the process of building. This is recently built. These things were brought to the attention of the Bureau of Public Roads and the State.

Mr. BLATNIK. I am sorry, you say this is a brand new road being constructed?

Mr. LINKO. Right.

Mr. BLATNIK. Not even in use yet?

Mr. LINKO. No.
