

hazard for 2 months of the year, and now we have it for 12 months in the year, 365 days. You have two abutments now that are not needed, and you can see these could have been phased out so you couldn't snag onto them.

This is an improvement project?

This is a little farther down, and you can see the same thing. We are creating these offsets right at the edges of our shoulders.

