

Anybody that passes this sign (arrow) should not be reminded that he has got to make an exit, because the smartest person, if he sees that, will try to cut somebody off and will get in trouble.

Here is the point—somebody might make this maneuver; at the last second he is trying to cut the guy off and cross two lanes of traffic.

