

nice and easy. I feel you need a crash program to get all these hazards off our roadways. It is an interstate highway and the speed is high here.

Here you can see the sign could be mounted on top of the overpass and the pole could be put inside the center divider. Every one of these places is an extra snag. Even at the bridge support, the guardrail does not go around it; it stops in the center.

