

Here they felt, well, somebody might run into it, so they put 75 feet of guardrail here. But you see, somebody running into that still has a problem; they did not solve the problem here.

This is a brand new rail. If I was doing the job, I would go around that hazard. But nobody had any intention of removing that hazard. They just put the guardrail up because somebody had it on paper.

Mr. CLEVELAND. Mr. Chairman.

Mr. BLATNIK. Mr. Cleveland.

Mr. CLEVELAND. Could a member of the staff tell me how much guardrail costs per foot, or would they describe the expense of guard-rail?
