

This rail is too high ; it will go right through your windshield.

Here, wooden planks are being used on a brand new parkway in our area. This is 1966 or 1967. The speed limit here is 50 miles an hour. These wooden planks cannot hold back a car.

They will split off. If you do not believe me, here you see one.

