

State is responsible for maintenance. But the city is doing the job and the State is not overseeing it.

The guardrails are broken and they are never repaired. My slides are dated to prove it. Rocks are laying in the shoulder.

Here you see a steamroller left on the side of the road over the weekend with no markings or anything. Somebody could run into that and get wiped out.

