

Now we go over to the Virginia side of the beltway. This is a route marker used all along the Virginia portion of the Capital Beltway. Again, a couple feet off the shoulder area mounted on a 4- to 6-inch steel pipe embedded in concrete.

