

Now, they space their posts, these steel posts that we are looking at close up, at 12 feet 6 inches, until you come to a sign location and then a bit later you will see a different treatment there.

Here is a view seen rather commonly along the job, showing about the way it looks. Again your head-on rail on this side and also on this side [indicating]. This is about 10 feet or 10 feet 6 inches off the edge of the pavement and this is about 9 feet on this side.

Mr. CLAUSEN. Is this on a primary road system or is this part of the Interstate System?

Mr. PRISK. This is the Interstate System, I-75.

Mr. CONSTANDY. This was opened in 1967?

Mr. PRISK. Opened in February 1967.

Mr. CLAUSEN. In what State?

Mr. PRISK. Georgia. I-75, just about 15 miles north of Atlanta.

