

and show you some representative installations that were found on several projects.

Signing is important to the use of the highway. It will be completely useless to build the highway system without appropriate installation of signs.

So here we are with the typical installation for advance notice of an exit on an Interstate project in Indiana.

