

Here is another car pulling into the exit.

Mr. CONSTANDY. Notice in that picture the distance between the two cars. If we can have the previous slide, you can see the second car is well back. This gives you an indication of how slowly the first car was traveling to find the exit.

You can see by this slide that the car that was far ahead is now alongside the other car.

