

And here, as you enter a rock section, you get into a more severe, much more severe slope, and to a degree much more severe hazard.

In Georgia you find this kind of condition. The median has a good many trees standing, and the slopes move out to this point, with the median being mounted up where the trees are located.

