SEC. 3. The provisions of this Act shall take effect the first day of the first month following its enactment.

GOVERNMENT OF THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA,
EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Washington, November 14, 1967.

The Honorable, the SPEAKER,
U.S. House of Representatives,
Washington, D.C.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: I have the honor to submit herewith a draft bill "To amend the District of Columbia Teachers' Salary Act of 1955, as amended."

The purpose of this bill is to strengthen the competitive salary position of the District of Columbia Public School System and to provide District teachers and school officers a basis for continued professional growth and development in order that each child shall have the benefit of teachers qualified to develop him to the limit of his potentialities.

The draft bill¹ amends the Act in the following manner:

Section 1 of the bill gives the legislation the title "District of Columbia Teachers' Salary Act Amendments of 1967".

Section 2(1) of the bill amends section 1 of the Act by increasing the salaries of teachers and school officers by approximately 8.3 percent.

Section 2(2) amends section 5(c) by adding at the end of the third sentence the words "or the equivalence thereof". This will allow the teacher-aides experience to be substituted for certain academic credit hours now required by the Act. In addition, the fifth sentence of the subsection is deleted, thereby removing the limitation on the number of teacher-aides.

Section 2(3) amends section 7(a) by deleting the words "the same type of position" and inserting "any position covered in salary class 15". This amendment gives experience credit to counselors and librarians coming from outside the D.C. Public School System who have compatible educational experience, such as teaching, in like manner as there presently exists interchangeability within salary class 15 for employees appointed from within the D.C. Public School System.
