

Statement of—Continued

H. G. Rickover—Continued

Department of Commerce administration of the Defense Production Act is ineffectual.....	Page 97
Recommended changes to strengthen the Defense Production Act.....	98
Uniform standard of accounting and types of contract.....	99
Efficiency of Government-owned versus private shipyards.....	101
Consideration should be given to treatment of large defense contractors as public utilities.....	102
Comment on selective service.....	104
Noncompetitive contracts under $500—most-favored-customer clause.....	104
Nuclear-powered merchant ships not competitive.....	106
Uniform accounting standards might save $2 billion.....	106
Defense Department too greatly influenced by industry viewpoint.....	107
Illustration of Armed Services Procurement Regulation being used to protect industry.....	108
Defense Department traded its rights away.....	109
Government agencies have a "giveaway" patent policy.....	110
Government should not pay for advertisements of defense contractors.....	111
Valuable technical information given to potential enemies through advertising of military equipment by defense contractors.....	112
Government not organized to protect itself against contractor claims.....	113
Contractor claims under shipbuilding contracts.....	115
Contractor claims under construction contracts.....	116
Summary of main points from testimony.....	119
Appendix 1.....	123
Appendix 2.....	124
Appendix 3.....	130
Appendix 4.....	143