

CONTENTS

Hearings held on—	Page
March 5, 1968-----	1
March 6, 1968-----	101
Statement of—
Alexander, Herbert E., director, Citizens Research Foundation, comment on paper No. 2-----	27
Barrow, Roscoe L., Wald professor of law, College of Law, University of Cincinnati-----	14
Bell, Howard H., president, American Advertising Federation, comment on paper No. 8-----	169
Crouse, Jay, president, Radio TV News Directors Association, presenting paper No. 7—The fairness doctrine: Its use and implications-----	145
Frank, Reuven, executive vice president, NBC News, presenting paper No. 4—The effect of the fairness doctrine on broadcast news operations-----	77
Furber, Lincoln M., public affairs director, WETA-TV, channel 26, Washington, D.C., comment on paper No. 5-----	106
Harley, William G., president, National Association of Educational Broadcasters, presenting paper No. 5—The effect of section 315 and the fairness doctrine on educational broadcasting-----	102
Hyde, Rosel H., Chairman, Federal Communications Commission-----	64
Jaffe, Louis L., Byrne professor of law, Harvard University, presenting paper No. 8—The fairness doctrine, equal time, reply to personal attacks, and the local service obligation; implications of technological change-----	162
Lower, Elmer W., president, ABC News, presenting paper No. 1—The role and influence of radio and television in the formation of public opinion: Comparison with newspapers, magazines, and specialized journals of opinion-----	34
Lyons, Louis M., news commentator, WGBH, Boston, Mass., comment on paper No. 1-----	39
Orme, Frank, executive director, National Association for Better Broadcasting, comment on paper No. 6-----	115
Pilpel, Mrs. Harriet F., radio-television committee chairman, American Civil Liberties Union, comment on paper No. 4-----	85
Porter, Paul, attorney, comment on paper No. 7-----	152
Robinson, Glen O., associate professor of law, University of Minnesota Law School, presenting paper No. 3—The fairness doctrine, the law, and policy in its present application-----	53
Siepmann, Charles A., professor emeritus, New York University, comment on paper No. 3-----	60
Stanton, Dr. Frank, president, Columbia Broadcasting System, presenting paper No. 2—The equal time requirements of section 315 of the Communications Act of 1934-----	21
Wasilewski, Vincent T., president, National Association of Broadcasters, presenting paper No. 6—The effect of the fairness doctrine on the broadcasting of public controversy-----	110
Biographical sketches of panel members-----	7-14