

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON PENSION STUDIES

In the planning and review of its pension studies, the National Bureau has benefited from the advice and guidance of this committee. The committee's concurrence with the views expressed in this report, however, is not to be assumed. The members of the committee are:

SOLOMON FABRICANT (chairman), National Bureau of Economic Research
ROBERT M. BALL, Social Security Administration
DORRANCE C. BRONSON, The Wyatt Company, Washington, D.C.
J. DOUGLAS BROWN, Princeton University
GEORGE B. BUCK, JR., New York, N.Y.
ARTHUR L. COBURN, JR., Old Colony Trust Company
JOHN J. CORSON, formerly of McKinsey & Co.
FRANK G. DICKINSON, North Illinois University
F. F. FAURI, University of Michigan
MILTON FRIEDMAN, University of Chicago
GEORGE GARVY, Federal Reserve Bank of New York
WILLIAM C. GREENOUGH, Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association and College Retirement Equities Fund
CHALLIS A. HALL, JR., Yale University
RALPH W. HEMMINGER, Bankers Trust Company
ALBERT J. HETTINGER, JR., Lazard Freres and Company
REINHARD A. HOHAUS, formerly of Metropolitan Life Insurance Company
CHARLES L. JACOBSON, JR., formerly of State of Wisconsin Investment Board
E. GORDON KEITH, University of Pennsylvania
BENJAMIN B. KENDRICK, formerly of Life Insurance Association of America
LANE KIRKLAND, AFL-CIO, Washington, D.C.
MURRAY W. LATIMER, Washington, D.C.
J. D. LOCKTON, General Electric Company
DAN M. MCGILL, University of Pennsylvania
IDA C. MERRIAM, Social Security Administration
ROBERT J. MYERS, Social Security Administration
VITO NATRELLA, formerly of Securities and Exchange Commission
JAMES J. O'LEARY, formerly of Life Insurance Association of America
JOSEPH A. PECHMAN, Brookings Institution
RAY M. PETERSON, formerly of Equitable Life Assurance Society
RENE L. ROTHSCHILD, formerly of California State Employees' Retirement Systems
LAWRENCE H. SELTZER, formerly of Wayne State University