

OLD-AGE INCOME ASSURANCE

Part VI: Abstracts of the Papers

CONTENTS

	Page
Letters of transmittal.....	III
Part I: GENERAL POLICY GUIDELINES:
Pension, Productivity, Freedom and Security, by Prof. Byron L. Johnson, University of Colorado.....	1
Income for the Elderly Through Work-Life Extension, Asset Conversion, and Pension Improvements, by Robert Tilove, senior vice-president, Martin E. Segal Co.....	5
Role of Public and Private Programs in Old-Age Income Assurance, by Dr. John McConnell, president, University of New Hampshire.....	8
Some Reflections on Selected Issues in Social Security, by Robert M. Ball, Commissioner of Social Security.....	9
Economic Security in Our Free Society, by Andrew A. Melgard, senior associate, Human Resources Development Group, Chamber of Commerce of the United States.....	12
Commentary by the National Association of Manufacturers.....	14
Private Pensions and the Public Interest: A special report prepared for the Eastman Kodak Co. and Marion B. Folsom, director, by Towers, Perrin, Forster & Crosby, Inc.....	15
Remarks by Roger Fleming, secretary-treasurer and director, Washington office of the American Farm Bureau Federation.....	17
Private Pension Plans in the United States, by James F. Oates, Jr., chairman, The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States.....	17
Statement by Charles A. Siegfried, president, Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.....	18
Statement of The New York Life Insurance Co.....	18
Strengthening Pension Equities Through Employee Contributions and A Clearing House for Credit, by Prof. Merton C. Bernstein, visiting professor of law, Columbia University Law School.....	19
Public Policy and Private Retirement Programs—A Suggestion for Change, by Pearl E. Charlet, manager of research, Hewitt Associates.....	23
Part II: THE AGED POPULATION AND RETIREMENT INCOME PROGRAMS:
The Aged Population: Economic Status, by Dr. Lenore Epstein Bixby, Janet H. Murray, and Dr. Erdman Palmore, Social Security Administration, U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.....	29
Old-Age Income Programs, by Elizabeth M. Heidbreder and Walter Kolodrubetz, and Dr. Alfred M. Solnik, Social Security Administration, U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.....	33
Current Redistributive Effects of Old-Age Income Assurance Programs, by Dr. Benjamin Bridges, Jr., Social Security Administration, U.S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.....	38