

(b) The Secretary of the Interior shall administer the national scenic river areas designated by subsection (a) of this section, paragraphs (4), (8), and (9), and the Secretary of Agriculture shall administer the areas designed by paragraphs (2) and (5), except that lands under the administrative jurisdiction of another Federal agency that are included in any such area shall be administered in such manner as may be agreed upon by the appropriate Secretary and the head of that agency, or as directed by the President. The areas designated by paragraphs (1), (3), (6), and (7) shall be administered in a manner agreed upon by the two Secretaries, or as directed by the President. The Secretary charged with the administration of each national scenic river area or portion thereof shall establish detailed boundaries for such area as soon as practicable after the date of enactment of this Act. Such boundaries may be revised from time to time, but may not include on both sides of the stream, tributary, or river a total of more than 320 acres per mile. The appropriate Secretary shall publish notice of such detailed boundaries in the Federal Register, together with appropriate descriptions.

(c) Within the exterior boundaries of a national scenic river area as established pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the Secretary of the Interior or the Secretary of Agriculture may acquire lands or interests therein by donation, purchase with donated or appropriated funds, or exchange: Provided, That on both sides of the stream, tributary, or river a total of not more than 100 acres per mile may be acquired in fee under authority of this Act, except that the appropriate Secretary may acquire in fee such additional acreage per mile as he determines is needed (1) to provide public use facilities and public access or (2) to acquire the portion of any individual tract of land which lies outside of the boundaries of a national scenic river area, with the consent of the owner, in order to avoid the payment of severance costs. Land acquired outside of the boundaries of a national scenic river area under authority of this subsection may be exchanged by the appropriate Secretary for any non-Federal property within such boundaries. Lands owned by a State may be acquired only with the consent of the owner. Lands owned by an Indian tribe may be acquired only with the consent of the tribal governing body. Lands acquired by the Secretary of Agriculture within or adjacent to a national forest shall upon acquisition become national forest lands. Money appropriated for Federal purposes from the Land and Water Conservation Fund shall be available for the acquisition of property for the purposes of this Act.

(d) In the exercise of his exchange authority, the Secretary of the Interior may accept title to any non-Federal property within a national scenic river area, and in exchange therefor he may convey to the grantor of such property any federally owned property under his jurisdiction within the States in which the national scenic river area is located which he classifies as suitable for exchange or other disposal. The values of the properties so exchanged either shall be approximately equal, or, if they are not approximately equal the values shall be equalized by the payment of cash to the grantor or to the Secretary as the circumstances require. The Secretary of Agriculture, in the exercise of his exchange authority, may utilize authorities and procedures available to him in connection with exchanges of national forest lands.

(e) Neither the Secretary of the Interior nor the Secretary of Agriculture may acquire by condemnation proceedings lands within any national scenic river area that are located in an incorporated city, village, or borough as long as such entities shall have in force and applicable to such lands a duly adopted, valid enforced zoning ordinance that is satisfactory to the appropriate Secretary.

(f) Neither the Secretary of the Interior nor the Secretary of Agriculture may exercise any authority to acquire county-owned lands within any national scenic river area, without the consent of the county, as long as the county is following a plan for the management and protection of such lands that is satisfactory to the appropriate Secretary.

ADMINISTRATION OF NATIONAL SCENIC RIVER AREAS

SEC. 5. (a) A national scenic river area shall be administered for the purposes of protecting its outstanding scenic, fish, wildlife, and outdoor recreation values, or restoring such values to the area, for public use and enjoyment, but without limitation on other uses that do not substantially interfere with these purposes. The Secretary of the Interior or the Secretary of Agriculture shall give primary management emphasis to protecting the aesthetic and scenic features of such
