

“(A) bar the right of a claimant to the greater benefit conferred by either the State or local government or subchapter III of chapter 83 of this title for any part of the same period of time;

“(B) deny to an employee an annuity accruing to him under subchapter III of chapter 83 of this title on account of service performed by him; or

“(C) deny any concurrent benefit to him from the State or local government on account of the death of another individual.

“§ 3374. Assignments of employees from State or local governments.

“(a) An employee of a State or local government who is assigned to an executive agency under an arrangement under this subchapter may—

“(1) be appointed in the executive agency without regard to the provisions of this title governing appointment in the competitive service for the agreed period of the assignment; or

“(2) be deemed on detail to the executive agency.

“(b) An employee given an appointment is entitled to pay in accordance with chapter 51 and subchapter III of chapter 53 of this title or other applicable law, and is deemed an employee of the executive agency for all purposes except—

“(1) subchapter III of chapter 83 of this title or other applicable retirement system;

“(2) chapter 87 of this title; and

“(3) chapter 89 of this title or other applicable health benefits system unless his appointment results in the loss of coverage in a group health benefits plan the premium of which has been paid in whole or in part by a State or local government contribution.

“(c) During the period of assignment, a State or local government employee on detail to an executive agency—

“(1) is not entitled to pay from the agency;

“(2) is deemed an employee of the agency for the purpose of chapter 73 of this title, sections 203, 205, 207, 208, 209, 602, 603, 606, 607, 643, 654, 1905, and 1913 of title 18, section 638a of title 31, and the Federal Tort Claims Act and any other Federal tort liability statute; and

“(3) is subject to such regulations as the President may prescribe. The supervision of the duties of such an employee may be governed by agreement between the Executive agency and the State or local government concerned.

“(d) A State or local government employee who is given an appointment in an executive agency for the period of the assignment or who is on detail to an executive agency and who suffers disability or dies as a result of personal injury sustained while in the performance of his duty during the assignment shall be treated, for the purpose of subchapter I of chapter 81 of this title, as though he were an employee as defined by section 8101 of this title who had sustained the injury in the performance of duty. When an employee (or his dependents in case of death) entitled by reason of injury or death to benefits under subchapter I of chapter 81 of this title is also entitled to benefits from a State or local government for the same injury or death, he (or his dependents in case of death) shall elect which benefits he will receive. The election shall be made within one year after the injury or death, or such further time as the Secretary of Labor may allow for reasonable cause shown. When made, the election is irrevocable unless otherwise provided by law.

“(e) If a State or local government fails to continue the employer's contribution to state or local government retirement, life insurance, and health benefit plans for a state or local government employee who is given an appointment in an executive agency, the employer's contributions covering the state or local government employee's period of assignment, or any part thereof, may be made from the appropriations of the executive agency concerned.

“§ 3375. Travel expenses.

“(a) Appropriations of an executive agency are available to pay, or reimburse, a Federal or State or local employee in accordance with—

“(1) subchapter I of chapter 57 of this title, for the expenses of—

“(A) travel and per diem instead of subsistence to and from the assignment location;

“(B) per diem instead of subsistence at the assignment location during the period of the assignment; and

“(C) travel and per diem instead of subsistence while traveling on official business away from his designated post of duty during the
