

(2) that in the operation of the program or project there is a failure to comply substantially with any such provision ;
the Commission shall notify the State or general local government of its findings and no further payments may be made to such government by the Commission until it is satisfied that such noncompliance has been or will promptly be, corrected. However, the Commission may authorize the continuance of payments to those projects approved under this Act which are not involved in the non-compliance.

ADVISORY GROUPS

SEC. 407. (a) The following advisory groups are authorized to be established under this Act:

- (1) The President may appoint, without regard to the provisions of title 5, United States Code, governing appointments in the competitive service—
 - (A) an advisory council to study and make recommendations concerning standards of merit personnel administration for personnel systems of State and local governments; and
 - (B) an advisory committee on intergovernmental manpower policy composed of representatives of the Federal Government, State and local governments, institutions of higher education and other educational and training organizations, professional organizations, employee organizations, and the general public, to advise on matters of general policy relating to this Act.
- (2) The Commission may appoint, without regard to the provisions of title 5, United States Code, governing appointments in the competitive service, such advisory committee or committees as it may determine to be necessary to facilitate the administration of this Act.
- (b) Members of the advisory council or of the advisory committees who are not regular full-time employees of the United States, while serving on the business of the council or committees, including travel time, are entitled to receive compensation at rates not exceeding the per diem rate for GS-18; and while so serving away from their homes or regular places of business, members may be allowed travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by section 5703 of title 5, United States Code, for individuals in the Government service employed intermittently.

APPROPRIATION AUTHORIZATION

SEC. 408. There are authorized to be appropriated, without fiscal year limitation, such sums as may be necessary for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1968, and for each of the four succeeding fiscal years, to carry out the programs authorized by this Act.

REVOLVING FUND

SEC. 409. (a) There is established a revolving fund, to be available without fiscal year limitation, for financing training and such other functions as are authorized or required to be performed by the Commission on a reimbursable basis by this Act and such other services as the Commission, with the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, determines may be performed more advantageously through such a fund.

(b) The capital of the fund shall consist of any appropriations made for the purpose of providing capital (which appropriations are hereby authorized), and such unexpended balances of appropriations or funds relating to the activities transferred to the fund and the fair and reasonable value of such stocks of supplies, equipment, and other assets and inventories on order as the Commission may transfer to the fund, less the related liabilities, unpaid obligations, and accrued annual leave of employees who are transferred to the activities financed by the fund at its inception.

(c) The fund shall be credited with—

- (1) reimbursements or advance payments from available funds of the Commission, other Federal agencies, State or local governments, or other sources for supplies and services at rates which will approximate the expense of operations, including the accrual of annual leave, the depreciation of equipment, and the net losses on property transferred or donated; and
- (2) receipts from sales or exchanges of property and payments for losses or damage to property accounted for under the fund.
