ARTICLE 10

Status of European Economic Community

(1) The European Economic Community which regularly and continuously engages in import and export operations on the international market is listed simultaneously in Annex A and in Annex B of this Convention as an exporting country and as an importing country with all the rights and obligations deriving therefrom.

(2) In regard however to the obligations of the European Economic Community as an exporting country in a situation of a maximum price declaration concerning the wheat of the European Economic Community, the European Economic Community shall make wheat available to importing countries which are members of this Convention at a price which shall not be greater than the maximum price. Moreover, it shall take all useful measures in conformity with the regulations resulting from its common agricultural policy to channel its quantities available for export in an equitable way to importing countries which are members of this Convention.

Adjustment in case of short crop

(1) Any exporting country which fears that it may be prevented by a short crop from carrying out its obligations under this Convention in respect of a particular crop year shall report the matter to the Council at the earliest possible date and apply to the Council to be relieved of a part or the whole of its obligations for that crop year. An application made to the Council pursuant to this paragraph shall be heard without delay.

(2) The Council shall, in dealing with a request for relief under this Article, review the exporting country's supply situation and the extent to which the exporting country has observed the principle that it should, to the maximum extent feasible, make wheat available for purchase to meet its obligations under this Convention.

(3) The Council shall also, in dealing with a request for relief under this Article, have regard to the importance of the exporting country's maintaining the principle stated in paragraph (2) of this Article.

(4) If the Council finds that the country's representations are well founded, it shall decide to what extent and on what conditions that country shall be relieved of its obligations for the crop year concerned. The Council shall inform the exporting country of its decision.

(5) If the Council decides that the exporting country shall be relieved of the whole or part of its obligations under Article 5 for the crop year concerned, the Council shall increase the commitments as represented by the datum quantities of the other exporting countries to the extent agreed by each of them. If such increases do not offset the relief granted under paragraph (4) of this Article, it shall reduce
