

ARTICLE 32

The Secretariat

(1) The Council shall have a Secretariat consisting of an Executive Secretary, who shall be its chief administrative officer, and such staff as may be required for the work of the Council and its Committees.

(2) The Council shall appoint the Executive Secretary who shall be responsible for the performance of the duties devolving upon the Secretariat in the administration of this Convention and for the performance of such other duties as are assigned to him by the Council and its Committees.

(3) The staff shall be appointed by the Executive Secretary in accordance with regulations established by the Council.

(4) It shall be a condition of employment of the Executive Secretary and of the staff that they do not hold or shall cease to hold financial interest in the trade in wheat and that they shall not seek or receive instructions regarding their duties under this Convention from any Government or from any other authority external to the Council.

ARTICLE 33

Privileges and Immunities

(1) The Council shall have in the territory of each member country, to the extent consistent with its laws, such legal capacity as may be necessary for the exercise of its functions under this Convention.

(2) The Government of the territory in which the seat of the Council is situated (hereinafter referred to as "the host Government") shall conclude with the Council an international agreement relating to the status, privileges and immunities of the Council, its Executive Secretary and its staff and of representatives of member countries at meetings convened by the Council.

(3) The agreement envisaged in paragraph (2) of this Article shall be independent of the present Convention. It shall however terminate:

(a) by agreement between the host Government and the Council, or

(b) in the event of the seat of the Council being moved from the territory of the host Government, or

(c) in the event of the Council ceasing to exist.

(4) Pending the entry into force of the agreement envisaged in paragraph (2) of this Article, the host Government shall grant exemption from taxation on the assets, income and other property of the Council and on remuneration paid by the Council to its employees other than nationals of the member country in whose territory the seat of the Council is situated.

ARTICLE 34

Finance

(1) The expenses of delegations to the Council and of representatives on its Committees and Sub-Committees shall be met by their respective Governments. The other expenses necessary for the administration of this Convention shall be met by annual contributions from
