

ARTICLE VII

Ratification, acceptance or approval

This Convention shall be subject to ratification, acceptance or approval by each signatory in accordance with its respective constitutional or institutional procedures, provided that it also ratifies, accepts or approves the Wheat Trade Convention. Instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval shall be deposited with the Government of the United States of America not later than 1 July 1968 except that the Food Aid Committee may grant one or more extensions of time to any signatory that has not deposited its instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval by that date.

ARTICLE VIII

Accession

(1) This Convention shall be open for accession by the European Economic Community and its Member States or by any other Government listed in Article VI provided the Government also accedes to the Wheat Trade Convention. Instruments of accession under this paragraph shall be deposited not later than 1 July 1968 except that the Food Aid Committee may grant one or more extensions of time to any Government that has not deposited its instrument of accession by that date.

(2) The Food Aid Committee may approve accession to this Convention by the Government of any Member of the United Nations or its specialized agencies on such conditions as the Food Aid Committee considers appropriate.

(3) If any Government not referred to in Article VI wishes to apply for accession to this Convention prior to its entry into force, the signatories to this Convention may approve accession on such conditions as they consider appropriate. Any such approval and conditions shall be as valid under this Convention as if this action had been taken by the Food Aid Committee after the entry into force of this Convention.

(4) Accession shall be effected by deposit of an instrument of accession with the Government of the United States of America.

ARTICLE IX

Provisional application

The European Economic Community and its Member States and any other Government listed in Article VI may deposit with the Government of the United States of America a declaration of provisional application of this Convention, provided it also deposits a declaration of provisional application of the Wheat Trade Convention. Any other Government whose application for accession is approved may also deposit with the Government of the United States of America a declaration of provisional application. Any Government depositing such a declaration shall provisionally apply this Convention and be provisionally regarded as a party thereto.
