

(40)	May 19, 1966	Republic	Bethlehem, Jones & Laughlin, United States Steel, Inland, Kaiser.	Alloy bars and billets, carbon special quality bars and billets.	Increase $2 a ton.
(41)	June 1, 1966	Republic, Copperweld, Bliss & Loughlin, La Salle.		White carbon merchant bars.	Decrease $1 a ton.
(42)	June 5, 1966			Carbon shell billets.	Decrease $2 a ton.
(43)	Aug. 2, 1966	Inland	United States Steel, Jones & Laughlin.	Cold-finished bars.	Unpublished price move.
(44)	Aug. 4, 1966			Cold-carbon finished bars and alloy bars.	Increase $2 a ton.
(45)	Aug. 5, 1966		Armco.	HR special quality bars; forging quality bloom, billets, and slabs; alloy steel bars, HR merchant quality bars; bar-sized shapes.	do.
(46)	Aug. 8, 1966		Jones & Laughlin, United States Steel, Bethlehem, Republic, National, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Granite City, Sharon, Alan Wood, Empire, Reeves, Interlake.	Prime grade CR sheets; HR sheets and strips.	Decrease $1 a ton.	Initiated without consulting the administration.
(47)	Aug. 10, 1966		Wheeling.	2d grade sheets (same products).	Increase $3 a ton.	White House asked for delay. Telegrams sent by White House (G. Ackley) to certain companies but eventually the administration accepted the increase.
(48)	Nov. 9, 1966		Armco.	Prime quality HR and CR sheet and strip.	Increase $2 a ton.
(49)	Nov. 14, 1966		Jones & Laughlin, United States Steel, Bethlehem, Republic, National, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Granite City, Sharon, Alan Wood, Empire, Reeves, Interlake.	Secondary sheet.	Increase $3 a ton.
(50)	Nov. 25, 1966		Jones & Laughlin.	Prime quality HR and CR sheet and strip.	do.	Silence by White House explains the rise of several smaller firms.
(51)	Dec. 8, 1966		Armco.	do.	do.
(52)	Dec. 1, 1966		Crucible.	do.	do.	Delay in Wheeling decision explained by the preceding year's just introduced "price-at-time-of-order" system.
(53)	Jan. 5, 1967	Jones & Laughlin.	Eastern Stainless, Republic, Crucible, Carpenter.	Tin plate.	Increase $0.25 per base box.	Washington invited Allegheny-Ludlum chief officer for talks. Following increase of about 9.2 percent in nickel price (instituted by International Nickel Co. of Canada) and dis-regarding Nov. 4 letter from the Council of Economic Advisers urging steel companies to absorb the nickel price increase.
(54)	Jan. 11, 1967	Republic.		Stainless sheets and strips.	Increase 2.5 percent.
				Stainless billets, bars, and wire products.	Average increase of 4 percent.
				do.	Average increase of 2.5 percent.
				Stainless steel bars, billets, rods, and wire.	Unpublished revised prices.
				Continuous weld pipe.	Increase 2.6 percent.
				Seamless, electric resistance welded pipe.	Increase 2.2 percent.
				Oil country tubular products.	Increase 2.9 percent.
				Steel pipe products.	Average increase 2.7 percent.
						White House reacted mildly to price rise.

See footnote at end of table.