

conduct a brief preliminary investigation into such matters, in addition to the invoice or other papers or information presented to him, as he may deem necessary.

(2) If the Commissioner decides, after such preliminary investigation, if any, that reasonable grounds do exist to believe or suspect that the merchandise is being or is likely to be, sold at less than its foreign market value (or, in the absence of such value, than its constructed value) he will thereafter proceed, by a full-scale investigation, or otherwise, to obtain such additional information, if any, as may be necessary to enable the Secretary to reach a determination as provided by section 14.8(a).

(3) If the Commissioner decides, after such preliminary investigation, if any, that reasonable grounds do not exist to believe or suspect that the merchandise is being, or is likely to be, sold at less than its foreign market value (or in the absence of such value, than its constructed value), he will thereafter

(i) proceed, by a full-scale investigation, or otherwise, to obtain such additional information, if any, as may be necessary to enable the Secretary to reach a determination as provided by section 14.8(a), or

(ii) recommend to the Secretary that a full-scale investigation is not warranted by the facts of the case and that the case be closed by a finding of no sales at less than fair value.

(e) If the Commissioner determines pursuant to paragraph (d)(1) (ii) of this section, or in the course of an investigation under paragraph (d)(3)(i) of this section, that there are reasonable grounds to believe or suspect that any merchandise is being, or is likely to be, sold at less than its foreign market value (or, in the absence of such value, than its constructed value) under the Antidumping Act, he shall publish notice of that fact in the Federal Register, furnishing an adequate description of the merchandise, the name of each country of exportation, and the date of the receipt of the information in proper form, and shall advise all appraisers of his action. This notice may be referred to as the "Withholding of Appraisement Notice." If the belief or suspicion relates only to certain shippers or producers, the notice shall specify that this is the case and that the investigation is limited to the transactions of such shippers or producers. The notice shall also specify whether the appropriate basis of comparison for fair value purposes is purchase price or exporter's sales price if
