

(5) Sales agency.-- If such or similar merchandise is sold or, in the absence of sales, offered for sale through a sales agency or other organization related to the seller in any of the respects described in section 207 of the Antidumping Act, 1921, as amended (19 U.S.C. 166), the price at which such or similar merchandise is sold or, in the absence of sales, offered for sale by such sales agency or other organization may be used in the determination of fair value.

(6) Fictitious sales.-- In the determination of fair value, no pretended sale or offer for sale, and no sale or offer for sale intended to establish a fictitious market, shall be taken into account.

(7) Sales at varying prices.-- Where the prices in the sales which are being examined for a determination of fair value vary (after allowances provided for in subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of this paragraph), determination of fair value will take into account the prices of a preponderance of the merchandise thus sold or weighted averages of the prices of the merchandise thus sold.

(8) Quantities involved and differences in price.-- Merchandise will not be deemed to have been sold at less than fair value unless the quantity involved in the sale or sales to the United States, or the difference between the purchase price or exporter's sales price, as the case may be, and the fair value, is more than insignificant. (Sec. 407, 42 Stat. 18; 19 U.S.C. 173.)

(9) Revision of prices or other changed circumstances. Whenever the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied that promptly after the commencement of an antidumping investigation either

(i) price revisions have been made which eliminate the likelihood of sales below fair value and that there is no likelihood of resumption of the prices which prevailed before such revision, or

(ii) sales to the United States of the merchandise have terminated and will not be resumed;

or whenever the Secretary concludes that there are other changed circumstances on the basis of which it may no longer be appropriate to continue an antidumping investigation, the Secretary shall publish a notice to this effect in the Federal Register. The notice shall state the facts relied on by the Secretary in publishing the notice and that those facts are considered to be
