XXXVI

National Farmers Union, Reuben L. Johnson, director, legislative services:	Page
Statement of Farmers Union adopted by delegates at the convention in Minneapolis	790
Statement by Reuben L. Johnson to the conference on trade policy	100 sponsored by the coordinating council of organizations on international trade policy at the Sheraton Park Hotel, Washington, D.C.	790
National Federation of Independent Business, George S. Bullen, legislative	1500
director, statement	1730
National Footwear Manufacturers Association:
Nonrubber footwear: Tariff and trade regulations (U.S. Department of Commerce, Business and Defense Services Administration)	4093
Richardson Mark E. president telegram dated June 13, 1968, to	1000
Richardson, Mark E., president, telegram dated June 13, 1968, to Hon. Dean Rusk, Secretary of State	2624
National Grange:
Graham, Harry L., legislative representative, excerpt from European Economic Commission report on the economic situation of the milk and milk products sector in the Community	782
Newson, Herschel D., master, U.S. agricultural exports to the Euro-	701
pean Économic Community: value by commodity	$\begin{array}{c} 781 \\ 4134 \end{array}$
National Handbag Association, Steven J. Weiss, counsel, statement National Oil Jobbers Council, Wilfred H. Hall, executive vice president,	4194
statement	4366
National Piano Manufacturers Association, Perry S. Patterson, counsel,
statement	3159
National Restaurant Association, Ira H. Nunn, counsel, statement	3337
National Retail Merchants Association, Henry E. Miller, letter dated July 12, 1968, to John M. Martin, Jr., from John C. Hazen, vice president,	005 government, re exports of textiles and textile products	805
National Slag Association, the Expanded Shale, Clay & Slate Institute, and the Lightweight Aggregate Producers Association, statement	3813
National-Standard Co., Ernest U. Lang, chief engineer, statement	1824
Nebraska Stock Growers Association, E. H. Shoemaker, Jr., president,	1021
letter dated May 25, 1968, to Chairman Mills	3320
Netherlands Chamber of Commerce in the United States, Inc., Henry J.
Clay, letter dated June 25, to Hon. John W. Byrnes, re quantitative restrictions	1594
Nevada State Cattle Association, Leslie J. Stewart, president, letter to	2201
Chairman MillsNew Mexico Cattle Growers' Association, W. O. Culbertson, Jr., president,	3321
statement	3322
New Zealand Dairy Board, statement, with forwarding letter from the	00
State Department	4890
State Department
from the State Department	3304
Newark, N. J., Mayor Hugh J. Addonizio, statement	1473
Newsom, Herschel D. (See National Grange.) Nicholson & Co., Inc., John E. Murray, Jr., vice president, letter dated June 24, 1968, to John M. Martin, Jr., chief counsel, Committee on Ways and Means	5095
North Carolina, Governor of, Hon. Dan K. Moore, statement	2624
North Dakota Stockmen's Association, Raymond Schnell, president,
statement	3325
Norwegian-American Chamber of Commerce, Inc., Danish American
Trade Council, Inc., Finnish American Chamber of Commerce, Inc., and	1775
Swedish Chamber of Commerce of the United States, Inc., statement	$\begin{array}{c} 1775 \\ 3337 \end{array}$
Nunn, Ira H., counsel, National Restaurant Association, statement Nyanza, Inc., Roland E. Derby, Jr., president, letter dated June 17, 1968, to	9991
Chairman Mills	4802
O'Brien, Gerald, executive vice president, American Importers Association,	_ 3,5 statement on U.S. foreign trade policy before Trade Information Committee of Office of President's Special Representative for Trade Negotiations—May 20, 1968Ocean Freight Consultants, Inc., Fred S. Haber, president, statement	841
Ocean Freight Consultants, Inc., Fred S. Haber, president, statement	1801
Ocoma Foods Co., Harold J. Wendt, vice president, production, letter dated May 31, 1968, to Chairman Mills	3344
O'Connell, John F., president, National Association of Alcoholic Beverage
Importers, Inc., statement	2814