

and procedures for foreign businessmen, in addition to supplying periodicals and films and conducting market research abroad.

JETRO also coordinates and subsidizes to a great extent exhibitions at international trade fairs.

Japan Consulting Institute

The Institute provides free consultant engineering services in connection with the sale of heavy industrial plants and equipment. It has 12 overseas offices in developing countries.