Product	Type of Restriction	Estimated Impact on U.S. Trade	Trade Agreement Status	Remarks
Non-Agricultural Quantitative Restrictions
Assemblies of parts of radio-electric apparatus containing crystal diodes, triodes, including transistors. Crystal diodes, triodes, including transistors and parts.	Quotas, Import licensing	Insignificant. 1966 imports from U.S. $23 million.	Illegal, items bound	U.S. has taken action under GATT Article XXIII to obtain removal of quotas and licensing requirement. Licenses currently being granted beyond the quota.
Airplanes and parts	Quotas for airplanes 2,000 kg. or less, Import licensing	Significant in the past. Currently insignificant since licenses are being readily granted	Illegal. Item bound.	U.S. has taken action under GATT Article XXIII to obtain removal of quotas and licensing requirement.
Valuation and Taxes
Cigarettes
	Monopoly Operation	Insignificant. 1966 imports from U.S. $3.6 million. Est. imports if removed $4.5 million. (decrease in trade mainly attributable to increase in tariff).	Legal and negotiable, item bound	As a result of moving toward CXT, retail prices of U.S. cigarettes have been increased proportionately more than those of comparable domestic brands. The increase in price is in contravention of a valid concession obtained from France in 1947. Representations are being made in France. Question is also currently being discussed in GATT Article XIV:6 negotiations with EEC on manufactured tobacco products.
