

TABLE 22

PERU		PERU
Product	Type of Restriction	Estimated Impact on U. S. Trade	Trade Agreement Status
Non-Agricultural Quantitative Restrictions
Textile Machinery	Import License	Not significant. Estimate of increase not possible. U. S. exports $2,024,563 in 1966.	Illegal, bound in part
			Licenses required on all unused textile machinery. Peru wishes to insure importation of high quality machinery for establishment of efficient textile industry. (Further restrictions or used equipment and cars expected soon)
Valuation and Taxes
Approx. 50 tariff classifications, with future lists expected soon.	Minimum valuations	Significant, but trade estimate not available.	GATT waiver not obtained.
All goods	Statistical tax: 1.5% c.i.f.		If the good is exempted from import duty the surcharge is .3% c.i.f.
All goods	Surcharge: 4% ocean freight charges		LATA concessions exempted in some cases.