

Product	Type of Restriction	Estimated Imports on U.S. Trade	Trade Agreement Status	Remarks
Non-Agricultural Quantitative Restrictions
No quota restrictions on imports
Licenses for individual imports no longer required	Imports handled through exchange certificate system			Export bonuses (B.E.), available on open market, used to finance wide range of essential commodities on B.E. list.
Indonesia has a prohibited list of domestically-produced items and some luxury products incl.: 1/ Plaiting and carving materials; other raw vegetable materials and products. Ethyl alcohol and certain liquids containing ethyl alcohol. Black printing ink. Prepared paints, other than ship and spray paints. Shoe polish. Old leather and leather waste. Scouring and Polishing paper. Silk and artificial silk waste; silk and artificial silk shoddy. Various textile items such as sarongs, kains, and scarves made of silk, wool, cotton, or other materials. Knitted and crocheted cotton articles (vests, pants, shirts). Rags and cloth waste. Writing and drawing slates.	Special permit issued by Minister of Trade	Significant, but group too broad to permit trade summary	Presumably justified under Art. XVIII for balance of payments and economic development reasons. Affects bound items.	Small amount of DP, or complementary foreign exchange accruing chiefly from invisibles available on open market to finance all non-essential commodities except prohibited items. BG and DP are in effect both a right to exchange and a right to import these designated commodities.

3941

1/ This list was in effect a list of prohibited items although Indonesia claimed to permit token amounts. Along with other changes in the trade regulations made on July 28, 1967, the prohibited list was revised. The revised list has not yet been transmitted by the Embassy.