oth, Ambassador William M.—Continued
Justification for adjustment assistance program related to increased	:
imports
Nonrubber footwear
Outline of trade policy study and supporting computer program Preliminary inventories of nontariff barriers  Preliminary inventory of nontariff barriers affecting U.S. trade in Preliminary inventory of nontariff barriers affecting U.S. trade in	L agricultural products
Preliminary inventory of nontariff barriers affecting U.S. trade	;
in industrial products Inventory of alleged U.S. nontariff barriers Nontariff barriers, by William B. Kelly, Jr.
Production of ASP chemicals by one, two, or three firms Progress in the elimination of foreign nontariff barriers Recent changes in the use of nontariff barriers by other countries Retaliatory action by United States Selected industries with tariff reduction greater than the overall average reduction of 35 percent Selectivity of the German added value tax STR consideration of the representations of interested groups
Table 1—Chemicals and allied products
Table 2—Benezenoid chemicals
Table 3—Intermediates
Table 4—Dyes and azoics
Table 5—Pigments
Table 6—Medicinals
Table 7—Other benzenoid products Table 8—Comparison of U.S. and EEC tariff rates for large-volume Table 8—Comparison of U.S. and EEC tariff rates for large-volume	; benzenoid intermediates Table 9—U.S. chemical exports, imports, and trade balance by principal destination and source, 1961–67Table 10—Benzenoid chemical rates of duty, ad valorem equivalents, Table 10—Benzenoid chemical rates of duty, ad valorem equivalents	, and 1964 imports
Table 11—Chemicals and allied products; new capital expenditures	; by selected industries and industry groups, 1958–67 Table 12—Annual plant and equipment expenditures abroad by U.S.
manufacturing companies: all manufacturing and chemicals and	L allied products
Table 13—Estimates of plant and equipment expenditures by foreign	L affiliates of U.S. companies, by area and industry, 1965–68 Table 14—Chemicals and allied products: sales by American-owned enterprises abroad and exports from the United States
Table 15—Research and development expenditures, by industry	,
1958-66	,
Table 16—Selected employment data for chemicals and allied products, industry, intermediate coal tar products industry, and all manufacturing industries, 1958–68	• racturing industries, 1958–68
Table 17—Selected economic indicators for the intermediate coal-tar	• products industry, 1958–66
Table 18—Index of industrial production (1957–59 equals 100) Table 19—Selected economic data: comparisons of chemicals and allied products industry with all manufacturing industries, 1958-67
U.S. exports, excluding military grant aid, in current and constant	, dollars, 1960–67U.S. exports financed under the Public Law 480 and AID programs, U.S. exports manced under the Public Law 480 and AID programs,	,
U.S. imports and exports by major industries
U.S. imports and exports by major industries usk, Hon. Dean, Secretary of State:
Analysis of U.S. exports to Europe, 1957–1967 Allied efforts in EuropeLetter dated June 13, 1968, from H. G. Torbert, Jr., Acting Assistant Letter dated June 13, 1968, from H. G. Torbert, Jr., Acting Assistant	, Secretary for Congressional Relations, to Chairman Mills re placing before the Federal Maritime Commission the views of the	) United Kingdom Government	