

Hence, Article I(2)(a) of the Brussels Definition, in the United States, would read, "(a) that the goods are treated as having been delivered to the buyer at the port or place of exportation to the United States."

With this modification, adoption of the Brussels Definition of Value is hereby recommended for the reasons set forth in the Senate Compendium.

Yours respectfully,

BEDROS ODIAN.

Mr. HERLONG. This completes the testimony to be received in this hearing. During the course of the hearing the committee has received extensive testimony from more than 300 witnesses covering some 35 major industry groups.

The first two volumes will contain testimony of the administration witnesses presented during the first week of the hearing. Subsequent volumes will contain the record for the balance of the hearing.

The record of the hearing will remain open until the close of business Friday, July 12, 1968 and any statements to be submitted for the record or any material requested for submission should be submitted not later than the close of business on that date.

Thank you. The committee is adjourned.

(Whereupon, at 1:13 p.m., the committee was adjourned.)

()