

is transmitters that actually occupy the spectrum, those figures are more pertinent to show the remarkable growth of radio than are authorizations. Table III lists transmitter population in two services and clearly demonstrates the magnitude of the problem facing the Commission.

TRANSMITTERS—TABLE III

Service	1946	1967
AM.....	961	4,135
FM.....	55	2,026
TV.....	6	758
Miscellaneous.....	770	2,026
Total broadcast.....	1,792	8,945
Aviation.....	(1)	196,723
Marine.....	(1)	174,454
Public safety.....	(1)	639,555
Industrial.....	(1)	1,551,410
Land transportation.....	(1)	489,835
Amateur.....	(1)	283,412
Citizens.....	(1)	2,718,505
Total safety and special.....		6,053,894

† Figures not available for 1946.

Note: Transmitter figures not available for Common Carrier Service.