

City Building Inspector's Office. This included single family dwelling units providing a total of 2 units and garden type apartments providing a total of 345 units.)

Total of Low Income Housing Units -----	90 units.
Total of Middle Income Housing Units -----	871 units.
Total Number of Housing Units, 1963 to present -----	961 units.

IV. Schedule of housing planned for Camden in the immediate future.

Three rent supplement programs sponsored by three church groups. At most 180 units.

(Participation by 1 of the church groups is in doubt.)

Housing for the elderly sponsored by a fourth religious group. Approx. 200 units.

Centerville Urban Renewal Project----- 425 units of sale housing priced at $12,000 per house. Each house shall have a carrying charge of $100/mo.

Centerville 221(d)3 project----- 82 units.

(This project is not a certainty.)

Northgate No. II Urban Renewal Project----- 200 units-high rise project-150 apartments and 50 townhouses. (Upper income housing.)

City Centre Project-Urban Renewal----- An unknown quantity of housing whose character in doubt; the best guess is that the housing will be upper, middle and low income.

City Within a City Project----- Approx. 4000 units of middle and upper income housing.

(This project is presently in grave doubt because of the financial problems of Mr. J. Wolman, owner of Philadelphia Eagles football club.)

CHIP

(CHIP, the Camden Housing Improvement Project, is the work of several business and industries in Camden including Campbell Soup, Camden Trust, First Camden National Bank & Trust Co., R.C.A. and others. It was formed in response to pressure generated at the grass roots level for action on the low-income housing crisis. CHIP is at a turning point. These 6 houses are its pilot project. If it succeeds, they hope to rehabilitate at least 100 houses a year.)

6 houses to be rehabilitated, for low income sale housing with a hoped for carrying charge of $60/month.

Inter-Faith-Inter-Racial Council of Churches----

35 houses to be rehabilitated for sale housing-low income. 100 units.

Public Housing-----

(This is a second project for the elderly and should be completed by 1969.)

Total of Low Income Housing Units-----

521 units including 300 for the elderly. 4,707 units.

Total of Housing Units for Middle and Upper Income Families.

(This assumes that Jerry Wolman's "City Within A City" is constructed.)