

Mr. CARTER. You have treatment facilities there for one who has delirium tremens?

Mr. PITTMAN. Yes. There have been few cases of delirium tremens. They are brought immediately into treatment, and care is provided so that there is rapid recovery.

Mr. CARTER. Sometimes even with the best treatment we see this. If you see many alcoholics, you will see delirium tremens. There is no question about that, and it does take a great deal of care and attention, and there is the problem of how to apprehend promptly those who are in this state as a result of the ingestion of alcohol. That is a problem.

Mr. PITTMAN. I think your point is well made. It is a matter of training on the part of the police, the nurses, and so forth. This can be reduced to a minimum.

Mr. ROGERS. I am interested in how your detoxification center works. What is your budget, or do you have it here?

Mr. PITTMAN. I would be glad to send the whole exhibit to the committee for the record. But, briefly, approximately $350,000 yearly. (The following information was received by the committee:)
