

Appendix L

"13a (3) Any State, administrative or regulatory agency of a State, or person, adversely affected or aggrieved by an order of the Commission entered pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) of this section, may bring suit to obtain judicial review thereof under those provisions of law applicable in the case of suits to enjoin, suspend, or set aside orders of the Commission."

The Secretary of Transportation, acting in cooperation with the Interstate Commerce Commission and other interested Federal agencies and Departments, is authorized and directed to undertake and submit, within one year after the date of enactment of this Act, a study of the existing and future potential for intercity railroad passenger service in the United States to the Committee on Commerce of the Senate and the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce of the House of Representatives. In making this study, the Secretary shall consider, among other things:

- (1) Existing resources of all types for meeting the Nation's present passenger transportation needs.
