

Appendix L

- (6) The proper role of the carriers and governmental bodies in developing the required quality and quantity of service, including methods of financing operations which are necessary but not economically viable.