

denied, suspended, or revoked unless such individual (hereafter in this title referred to as 'applicant') has been given—

“(1) a written statement of reasons for the denial, suspension, or revocation stated as comprehensively and detailed as the national security permits;

“(2) an opportunity, after he has replied in writing within a reasonable time under oath or affirmation in specific detail to the statement of reasons, for a personal appearance at which time he may present evidence in his own behalf;

“(3) a reasonable time to prepare for the proceeding;

“(4) the opportunity to be represented by counsel; and

“(5) a written notice advising him of final action, which notice, if final action is adverse, shall specify either the finding has been for or against him with respect to each allegation in the statement of reasons.

“(b) The applicant shall be afforded an opportunity to cross-examine persons who have made oral or written statements adverse to the applicant relating to a controverted issue except that any such statement may be received and considered without affording such opportunity if—

“(1) the head of the department supplying the statement certifies that the person who furnished the informa-