

(2) of subsection (b) of this section are used, the applicant shall be given a summary of the information which shall be as comprehensive and detailed as national security permits, appropriate consideration shall be accorded to the fact that the applicant did not have an opportunity to cross-examine such person or persons, and a final determination adverse to the applicant shall be made only by the head of the department based upon his personal review of the case.

“(d) Records compiled in the regular course of business or other physical evidence, other than investigative reports, may be received and considered—

“(1) without authenticating witnesses but subject to rebuttal, provided that such information has been furnished to the department concerned by an investigative agency pursuant to its responsibilities in connection with assisting the head of the department concerned with safeguarding defense facilities and classified information pursuant to this title; or

“(2) when relating to a controverted issue and which, because they are classified, may not be inspected by the applicant, provided that (A) the head of the department concerned or his special designee for that purpose has made a preliminary determination that such physical evidence appears to be material, (B) the head of the department concerned or such designee has made a