

determination that failure to receive and consider such physical evidence would, in view of the level of access sought, be substantially harmful to the national security, and (C) to the extent that the national security permits, a summary or description of such physical evidence is made available to the applicant.

In every such case, information as to the authenticity and accuracy of such physical evidence furnished by the investigative agency involved shall be considered. In such instances a final determination adverse to the applicant shall be made only by the head of the department based upon his personal review of the case.

“(e) Nothing contained in this title shall be deemed to limit or affect the responsibility and powers of the head of a department of Cabinet rank to deny, suspend, or revoke access to a classified military project or to classified information if the security of the Nation so requires when such head of the department personally determines that the procedures prescribed in sections 410 and 411 of this title cannot be invoked consistently with the national security, and such determination shall be conclusive. Such authority may not be delegated.

“TRAINING OF ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

“SEC. 412. Investigative personnel, screening or hearing officers, counsels, examiners, and members of boards, assigned