

same employer had he continued in the same position as that held at the time of suspension, denial, or revocation and his interim earnings during the period commencing on the date of suspension, denial, or revocation and ending with the date of giving notice to the applicant by regular first-class mail addressed to his last known address of his eligibility for employment or access authorization. Due regard shall be given to the duty of the applicant to minimize damages during the period of any such suspension, denial, or revocation, by reasonably seeking and accepting other employment for which he may be qualified.

"COMPULSORY PROCESS

"SEC. 414. (a) Under such regulations as the President may prescribe, the President (or his designee for such purpose) shall have power to issue and, in his discretion for good cause shown, may issue, process to compel witnesses to appear and testify or produce evidence at any designated place and at any stage of any inquiry, investigation, or proceeding entered upon pursuant to the provisions of this title. Any process so issued may run to any part of the United States and its possessions, including the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. In any such inquiry, investigation, or proceeding, the applicant may be called by the Government to testify as a witness as of cross-examination. No person, on the ground or for the reasons that testimony or evidence, documentary or