

AMENDING SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES CONTROL ACT OF 1950 1683

Dec 7, 66
5220.6

- J. Sympathetic association with a member, or members, or an organization referred to in D., above. Ordinarily, this will not include chance or occasional meetings nor contacts limited to normal business or official relations.
- K. Currently maintaining a close continuing association with a person who has engaged in activities or associations of the type referred to in A. through J., above. A close continuing association may be deemed to exist where the individual lives at the same premises as, frequently visits, or frequently communicates with, such person.
- L. Close continuing association of the type described in A. through K., above, even though later separated by distance, where the circumstances indicate that renewal of the association is probable.
- M. Wilful violation or disregard of security regulations.
- N. Any behavior, activities, or associations which tend to show that the individual is not reliable or trustworthy.
- O. Any deliberate misrepresentations, falsifications or omission of material facts from a Personnel Security Questionnaire, Personal History Statement, or similar document.
- P. Any criminal, infamous, dishonest, immoral, or notoriously disgraceful conduct, habitual use of intoxicants to excess, drug addiction, or sexual perversion.
- Q. Acts of a reckless, irresponsible or wanton nature which indicate such poor judgment and instability as to suggest that the individual might disclose classified information to unauthorized persons, or otherwise assist such persons, whether deliberately or inadvertently, in activities inimical to the national interest.
- R. Any illness, including any mental condition, of a nature which, in the opinion of competent medical authority, may cause significant defect in the judgment or reliability of the employee, with due regard to the transient or continuing effect of the illness and the medical findings in such cases.
